

Visit Greeneville, TN, and discover your very own First Frontier!!

www.VisitGreenevilleTN.com

Outdoor Recreation - Would you like to hike more than 25 miles of scenic beauty, or bike along the Appalachian Trail? If so, Greene County, TN, has just what you are looking for. Come and see why we boast of our beauty and wealth of outdoor recreation. Visit www.NEToutdoors.net for downloadable directions to some of our most popular trails or call 423-638-4109. Greene County also has beautiful campgrounds, waterfalls and horseback riding trails for the adventurous tourist in you!!

Historic Attractions — Greene County enjoys a rich, historical heritage. Early settlers followed the Indians and animals to the Big Spring—a water source that eventually served the growing town of Greeneville for 150 years. Shown here is the “Showplace of East TN.” The Dickson-Williams Mansion is one of the prime examples of Federal architecture in Tennessee. During the Civil War, both Confederate and Union troops were entertained here. Admission is $10 and daily tours begin at 1 p.m. in the lobby of the General Morgan Inn.

Civil War — Greene County is home to six Civil War Trail markers along the Civil War Trail in Tennessee. Follow the trail to see where the Pottertown Bridgeburners were convicted and hanged, view the lawn where General John Hunt Morgan, better known as the “Thunderbolt of the Confederacy,” was shot after spending his last night in the Dickson-Williams Mansion or visit the President Andrew Johnson Museum and Library on the campus of Tusculum College and see where students, in 1861 burned President Andrew Johnson in effigy and raised a Confederate flag. Or stand where soldiers once fought not once, but twice on the Battle of Blue Springs site.

Performing Arts & Culture — Come and see the state-of-the-art Niswonger Performing Arts Center where entertainers such as Gladys Knight, Amy Grant, The Beach Boys and the Oak Ridge Boys have performed. This facility, located adjacent to Greeneville High School, offers a variety of performances, ranging from Broadway musicals to major concerts, national touring theatre and comedy along with regional and local performances. For more information, visit www.greenevillpac.com.

What's New — The City Garage Car Museum was founded in 2008 by Kent Bewley, a Greeneville native whose family has been in the automobile business since 1937. The museum has a very diverse collection of cars from a 1914 Ford Brass T Model to a 1971 DeTomaso Pantera Sports Car. The Emporium, the Palace Movie Theatre and Suzie Q's Diner add much to the museum. The Texaco Service Station display is so unique with the A-Model and T-Model service trucks along with the mule drawn Studebaker oil tanker. The museum hours of operation are Friday and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is $5 per person ages 5 and older. The museum is located on 210 S. Main Street.

Log On to: www.VisitGreenevilleTN.com or call 423-638-4111 for more information.

Stay and Play in Tennessee's Second Oldest Town!!

Local Lodging - Greeneville is blessed with a host of great lodging facilities, from an historic hotel and well-respected chain hotels to bed and breakfasts, working farms and cabin rentals. The community has more than 620 rooms available for your meeting or convention, reunion or wedding. Stay in one of our hotels and plan your day in or around the area with great walking tours, driving tours, hiking and biking or shopping in Greeneville and surrounding areas such as Pigeon Forge, Gatlinburg or Jonesborough.

Follow the Quilt Trail — Remember how comforting grandma's old quilt always was on those rainy, dreary days or when you just didn't quite feel yourself? Well, take a step back in time and feel that deep down comfort again by following the many quilt trails in Greene County. The community boasts of 16 locations for these beautiful quilts and you can enjoy picking your own berries, making your own soap, feeding the llamas or just relaxing in a rocking chair with a cold glass of southern sweet tea. Visit the Quilt Trail at www.Quilttrail.org or www.VacationAQT.com.

Arts and Culture — Greeneville and Greene County have many art galleries to satisfy your artistic side from the James-Ben Studio and Gallery to Art Space on Main Street. The area also boasts of local crafters that demonstrate wood turning and burning, as well as quilting, soap making and wool spinning. The area is rich in talent and offers many opportunities to enjoy fine craftsmanship.

Agritourism — Agritourism is a style of vacation that normally takes place on a farm or ranch and involves activities such as picking your own fruits and vegetables, riding horses, tasting honey, etc. Greene County has a wealth of "pick your own" farms including blueberry farms, nurseries, llama farms, farm houses featuring overnight stays and offering soap making, painting your own souvenir to take home, corn mazes, quilting classes and much more. Request our Agritourism brochure today.

Antiques — Greene County has a very popular Antique Trail that offers more than 350 dealers in one of the most unique towns in the southeast. Go antiquing in Tennessee's second oldest town and visit the Greeneville Antique Mall in historic downtown Greeneville, featuring three floors and more than 14,000 square feet of quality antiques, or travel down the scenic Andrew Johnson Highway and visit American Road Antiques with three buildings and over 90,000 items. Request our Antiques and Treasures brochure today.

Log On to: www.VisitGreenevilleTN.com or call 423-638-4111 for more information.

